ANDRIJA ARTUKOVIC

LA T-1 advised on August 8, 1963, that Andrija Artukovic, his wife, and four children have resided at B 64, Surfside Colony, Surfside, California, since approximately 1947. Artukovic is employed as an accountant by his brother, John Artukovic, who is the owner of a paving business in the Los Angeles area. John Artukovic owns extensive property in Surfside, California, including a residence at B 62, Surfside Colony.

Andrija's wife is employed as a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach, California.

LA T-1 stated that Andrija works at his residence, because he is afraid that if he leaves the Surfside Colony he will be assassinated. LA T-1 advised that he has never had any political discussions with Artukovic.

LA T-2 and LA T-3, who are generally familiar with Communist Party activities in the Orange County, California area, advised on August 7, 1963, that they had no information concerning activities of Andrija Artukovic.

On July 15, 1963, LA T-4 advised that Andrija Artukovic resides in Surfside, California, with his family and to the knowledge of this source has not left the United States since he arrived here. This source further stated that he has not known Artukovic to have taken an active part in any political or immigrant activity, and source believes that Artukovic is content to remain as inconspicuous as possible and would do nothing to jeopardize his residence in the United States.

Immigration and Naturalization, Los Angeles, File A7 095 961 concerning Andrija Artukovic contains no information indicating that Artukovic has contemplated traveling outside the United States.
